PRESENTED BY ROB TIMMINGS

Two-day seminar – fully catered

Since 2010 Enrolled Nurses are expected to work with their own accountability and the lines of responsibility between Registered Nurses and Enrolled Nurses are often blurred as organisations and employees place more on the shoulders of Enrolled Nurses. If you are an enrolled nurse and feel that an injection of knowledge and passion in your nursing career is your prescription, then join us at our newest Enrolled Nurse only seminar!

Content includes:

- Cardiac and Respiratory assessment
- Understanding level of consciousness
- Enrolled Nurse scope of practice refresher
- Assessing chest pain, wounds and shortness of breath
- Understanding Hypertension and Blood Pressure
- Understanding elderly patient physiology and why ageing impacts on assessment parameters
